Weekly Program:

“Sacramento Zoo” – Starr Hurley and Lisa Clement

Starr Hurley and Lisa Clement were announced by Sharon S. Farr, a former Olympian who competed in the 1964 Olympics in Austria and was the #1 ranked American and #9 overall in skiing. She also was an Olympic Torch carrier in 1960, 2002, and 2010. She was also a 2012 inductee into the McClatchey Sports Hall of Fame. She is indeed well rounded and well-traveled. Her father was a member of the Downtown Sacramento Rotary Club and a Paul Harris Fellow. Lisa Clement is a development contributor for the Sacramento Zoo which is now 90 years old.

The Sacramento Zoo is accredited by the Association of Zoos and Aquariums. It is home to 580 animals of all shapes and sizes. Zoo sponsored school programs reach an average of 60,000 – 80,000 students per year including programs Little Peps and Zoo Teens.

The Zoo has a Zoo Mobile and hosts camps for kids as well as field trips and an event called Starlight Safari where students explore the Zoo at night.

There is also an exhibit close to the front entrance called Quarters for Conservation and the Conservation Carousel which help support local and global conservation efforts. Some programs supported are Grevy’s Zebra Project, SAFE Western Pond Turtle Projects, Masai Giraffe Conservation, and the Nudo Adoptivo Project.

The Zoo also hosts some fun events like Ice Cream Safari, Zoo Zoom, Star Wars Day, Wine and Brew at the Zoo, Wild Affair, and Wild Games to name a few.

Families and organizations can also book private events at the Zoo like birthday parties, weddings, baby showers, proposals, corporate outings, or whatever, the Zoo is happy to host.

Have fun at the Zoo.
